Rachael Griffin -EL, ex rel. RACHAEL GRIFFIN,
Plaintiff, sui juris, in propria persona

v.

JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, N.A., JAMIE DIMON, FRANKLIN CREDIT MANAGEMENT CORPORATION, THOMAS J. AXON, et al.,
Defendants.

Civil Action No.: 4:25-cv-02013

AFFIDAVIT OF Rachael Griffin-EL IN SUPPORT OF

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF COMBINED REBUTTAL AND MOTION TO VOID UNLAWFUL FORECLOSURE WITH REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff, Rachael Griffin-EL, special appearance, in propria persona, sui juris, respectfully submits this Memorandum of Law in support of her Combined Rebuttal and Motion to Void the unlawful foreclosure conducted by Defendants. Jamie Dimon CEO /U.S. citizen and Thomas J. Axon, CEO /U.S. citizen, this wrongful foreclosure violates Plaintiff's treaty rights, the Constitution for the United States of America, the Articles of Confederation, and Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution's Lawful Tender Clause. It also contravenes Title 12 USC 95a Bank and Banking Regulations, the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), and the Clearfield Doctrine, which binds Defendants to commercial and trust law when acting in a private capacity.

Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen) lack lawful standing, have failed to produce the original wet-ink negotiable instrument as required under commercial law, and have ignored Plaintiff's properly served Affidavit of Dispute, Memorandum of Trust, and Adverse Claim, all of which are part of the public record. Plaintiff respectfully seeks a ruling that the alleged debt is void for want of lawful consideration, that the foreclosure is void ab initio, and that title must be quieted in Plaintiff's favor. Defendants Jamie Dimon acting CEO (U.S. citizen) JPMorgan Chase and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen) Franklin, credit management company, failed to lawfully loan any money or specie in accordance with Article I, Section 10, Clause 1 of the Constitution. Instead, they unlawfully monetized my signed promissory note, treating my signature as the source of credit, thereby making me the true creditor and creator of the value. By doing so, Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen) immediately became indebted to me, yet they concealed this material fact, failed to provide full disclosure, and failed to return my equitable interest or perform according to lawful contract. This constructive fraud and breach of fiduciary trust vitiates any alleged debt or lien claimed by Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen) and renders the unlawful foreclosure and transfer void ab initio.

SPECIAL APPEARANCE AND JURISDICTIONAL NOTICE

Plaintiff, Rachael Griffin-El, special appearance in propria persona, sui juris, states:

1. This filing is made solely to protect her private estate rights and treaty-protected status, without granting general personal jurisdiction beyond the limited scope permitted by the Constitution and the Treaty of Peace and Friendship.
2. This Article III Court has subject-matter jurisdiction only to the extent that it must honor constitutional and treaty obligations. Plaintiff retains original jurisdiction over her own status, territory, and estate trust rights secured by the Treaty of Peace and Friendship (1787/1836), Article VI of the Constitution, and the Law of Nations (not Pro se).
3. Any ruling on this matter must be made by an Article III acting judge, qualified under the Constitution to decide disputes involving treaty obligations, adverse claims, disputes, trust, and secured rights.

II. PROCEDURAL FACTS AND DEFENDANTS' DEFAULT

1. On December 30, 2024, Plaintiff served Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen) by Certified Mail with a sworn Affidavit of Dispute, Memorandum of Trust, and Adverse Claim, challenging the validity and enforceability of the alleged mortgage loan which led and wrongful foreclosure.
 2. Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen) were granted a 10-day response window plus an additional 90 days to rebut or cure these claims. Defendants failed to respond, defaulting in fact and law.
 3. Despite this un rebutted default, Defendant Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) unlawfully proceeded with foreclosure on June 3, 2025, using only copies and an incomplete chain of title on a fraudulent loan

III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Defendant Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen), ignored this Affidavit and proceeded with an unlawful foreclosure despite lacking: Default on lawful tender of actual money and failure to deliver same as consideration for the alleged debt obligation.”
 - Default on Lawful tender of actual money; delivery
 - The original wet-ink negotiable instrument;
 - Holder in due course status under UCC § 3-302;
 - A perfected chain of title.
2. Defendants, as national banks and private commercial actors, lack authority to foreclose on an instrument treated as a security without:
 - Complying with fiduciary duties under Title 12 U.S.C. and the Truth in Lending Act (TILA).
3. Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen fraudulently conveyed the instrument as a security under 15 U.S.C. § 78c, ignoring that it does not qualify for the exemption reserved for short-term notes.
4. Under the Clearfield Doctrine, banks engaged in private commercial business must obey commercial law — they are private actors, not sovereigns. Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363 (1943).
5. In addition to serving Defendants, Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen, Plaintiff served the same Affidavit of Dispute, Memorandum of Trust, and Adverse Claim on multiple acting government officers and agencies, including:
 - Scott Bessent-Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC)
 - Jane Nelson, -Texas Secretary of State
 - Antony J. Blinken, -U.S. Secretary of State
 - Merrick B. Garland, -U.S. Attorney General
 - Marco Rubio,- United States Senator
 - Pamela Bondi, -United States Attorney General
 - Volker Türk, -UN High Commissioner for Human Rights
 - Office of Consul General – Morocco, Maghrib al-Aqsá

These un rebutted notices invoke Plaintiff’s international treaty and trust protections, placing Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen, and all relevant acting government authorities on full record that any foreclosure acts done in defiance of the supreme law constitute fraud and deprivation of rights under color of law in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 241 and 242. And Article 22 Treaty of peace and friendship September 16, (1787/1836)

IV. NO VALID CONSIDERATION — DEFENDANTS DEFAULTED FIRST

A. No Lawful Money Was Ever Loaned

Plaintiff expressly disputes that Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), ever delivered any lawful “money” within the meaning of the law. “Money, in its usual and ordinary acceptation, means coins and paper currency used as a circulating medium of exchange, and does not embrace notes, bonds, evidence of debt, or other personal or real estate.” — Lane v. Railey, 280 Ky. 319, 133 S.W.2d 74, 79, 81.

No Lawful Money Was Ever Loaned

Dollar. The money unit employed in the United States is defined as the value of one hundred cents, or any combination of coins totaling one hundred cents in lawful coinage.

Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), did not loan Plaintiff actual coins or lawful money — meaning coined money or paper currency backed by tangible assets of intrinsic value. Instead, they monetized Plaintiff’s own promissory note by recording a mere bookkeeping credit entry, thereby creating so-called “money” from Plaintiff’s signature alone. This transaction did not involve any real transfer of lawful money but instead falsely presented a fabricated bank credit as a legitimate loan of actual existing funds. Title 12 bank and Banking 12 USC 95a: Regulation of transactions in foreign exchange of gold and silver; property transfers; vested interests, enforcement and penalties

Importantly, Federal Reserve Notes, and similar printed commercial, paper is not lawful money under the Constitution. Article I, Section 10 of the United States Constitution expressly prohibits states from making “anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts.” This foundational constitutional provision recognizes only gold and silver coin as lawful tender for debts. The use of Federal Reserve Notes or other instruments as money violates this mandate and undermines the validity of any so-called loan purportedly funded by such instruments.

Further, the term “obligation” means obligation in its original and organic constitutional sense. The State cannot enact laws or pass statutes that impair or change the obligation of contracts established under the original Constitution. Any attempt to alter the nature of lawful tender or the binding nature of contract obligations is a direct violation of the Contracts Clause in Article I, Section 10, and is therefore void and unconstitutional.

No Lawful Money Loaned — No Valid Debt

Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), did not loan Plaintiff lawful money, meaning gold or silver coin or paper currency backed by tangible assets, as required by Article I, Section 10 of the United States Constitution:

“No State shall...make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts...”

Instead, Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen) monetized Plaintiff’s signed promissory note — recording asset entry on their books, using Plaintiff’s own promise to pay as the only real “asset.” No coins, no gold, no silver, and no tangible value were ever delivered to Plaintiff. This means there was no valid consideration and therefore no lawful debt to enforce.

Modern statutory banking law confirms this standard: under 12 U.S.C. § 95a, titled “Regulation of transactions in foreign exchange of gold and silver; property transfers; vested interests,” Congress reaffirms that regulation of bank transactions concerns gold and silver — not Federal Reserve Notes or private commercial paper. Federal Reserve Notes are private corporate debt instruments, not true constitutional money.

Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), did not deliver any gold or silver as required by the organic constitutional obligation and acknowledged by Title 12 Banking Regulations still in force. By defaulting on this primary obligation to deliver lawful money, Defendants themselves are in material breach.

B. No Lawful Consideration = No Enforceable Contract

Under fundamental contract law, a valid loan agreement requires lawful consideration — the lender must risk or deliver real value. See U.C.C. § 3-303(a)(1) (an instrument is issued for value only if the issuer receives the agreed consideration). Because Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), failed to deliver any real money, no valid consideration exists. A contract without consideration is void and unenforceable.

C. Defendants Defaulted First on the Contract

Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), materially defaulted first by failing to deliver lawful legal tender in accordance with the original agreement, thereby breaching their fiduciary duties under the constructive trust created when Plaintiff signed the promissory note. See Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Ass’n v. Stovall, 253 S.W. 1101 (Tex. Comm’n App. 1923) (party in default cannot enforce the contract). Any alleged “default” by Plaintiff is null because Defendants’ prior default excuses Plaintiff’s performance.

D. Fraud Vitiates the Entire Transaction

By concealing the nature of this fraudulent asset transaction, Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), committed constructive fraud that vitiates the entire mortgage agreement and any purported right to foreclose. United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878) (“Fraud vitiates the most solemn contracts, documents, and even judgments.”).

E. Clearfield Doctrine: Commercial Entities Must Follow Commercial Law

Under the Clearfield Doctrine, Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363 (1943), when a private bank or federal entity acts in a purely commercial capacity, it loses sovereign immunity and must comply with commercial and trust law. Here, Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), operated purely as private commercial actors monetizing Plaintiff’s signature for unjust enrichment.

Notice and Declaration of Artificial Personhood of Defendants

Plaintiff, Rachael Griffin-El, in propria persona, sui juris, hereby gives judicial notice that the named Defendant “JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.” is not a living, breathing man or woman, but rather a legal fiction, a corporate entity originally chartered under the laws of the United States and/or the State(s).

Historical evidence confirms that “J. P. Morgan & Co.” and its successors in interest (including JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.) have always operated as private banking corporations — artificial entities acting through charters, trust instruments, (acting) officers, and agents. Said entity exists only by statutory privilege and does not possess inherent, unalienable rights as secured to living Moorish Americans under the Constitution, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1787/1836, and recognized international instruments, including the American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (ADRIP).

This Plaintiff asserts that any alleged mortgage, contract, or note purportedly executed with such a corporate fiction is subject to strict scrutiny for full disclosure, lawful consideration, and lawful capacity of the parties. See 728. THE CHRONICLE. Title: April 17, 1897, Vol. 64, No. 1660
FEDERAL RESERVE BANK of ST. LOUIS

As no living man or woman named “JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.” exists or can appear in open court to claim personal injury or standing against Plaintiff’s unalienable private rights, this Plaintiff demands strict proof of authority, trust capacity, original wet-ink contract, and lawful money lent as lawful tender.

Any claim by said Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO (U.S. citizen) and Thomas J. Axon, CEO (U.S. citizen), must be construed in equity as an act by trustees and agents who owe a fiduciary duty to the trust corpus, to the benefit of the original creditor and living beneficiary — herein Plaintiff — and cannot override the paramount rights of the living Moorish American national secured by treaty, constitutional provision, and natural law.

Doctrine of Fraudulent Conversion — Commercial Vampirism

This Plaintiff further asserts that these foreign corporate actors — including Jamie Dimon, CEO U.S. citizen, JPMorgan Chase, U.S. citizen, Codilis & Moody, P.C., attorney /Feoffer /U.S. citizen, Juanita Deaver U.S. citizen /attorney /Feoffer and any agents feoffers acting under color of law — operate as commercial vampires, converting living ancestral estates into fraudulent debt paper through misrepresented trust deeds, bills of attainder, foreign bills of exchange, and other unlawful instruments lacking lawful disclosure, consideration, or capacity. Such predatory practices violate my secured unalienable rights, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship, the supreme Law of the Land, and constitute constructive fraud, conversion, and color-of-law extortion.

F. Judicial Notice Requested

Plaintiff Rachael Griffin -El, respectfully requests that this Article III Court take Judicial Notice under Federal Rule of Evidence 201 of:

1. Lane v. Railey, 280 Ky. 319, 133 S.W.2d 74.
2. Federal Reserve publications confirming banks create loans through credit creation.
3. UCC provisions requiring value and lawful consideration for negotiable instruments.

V. Violation of Plaintiff's Treaty Rights Under the Treaty of Peace and Friendship

Pursuant to Article III, Section 2 of the Constitution for the United States of America, the Judicial Power of this court extends to all Cases arising under the Constitution, the Laws of the United States, and Treaties made under their Authority, including the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1787/1836 and the Consular Convention signed September 16, 1836 between the United States and Moroccan Empire.

Furthermore, under Public Law 856, Chapter 807 (Joint Resolution, August 1, 1958), Congress approved the relinquishment of the consular jurisdiction of the United States in Moroccan Empire, reaffirming the independent sovereignty and protective rights of Moorish nationals under said Treaty. As an heir unconditional to my ancestral estate in reversion, I invoke these supreme Treaty protections. Any state or private actor's attempt to violate these secured rights is null and void under the Supremacy Clause and Article III jurisdiction.

Pursuant to Article VI, Section 2 of the Constitution for the United States of America, known as the Supremacy Clause:

"This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding."

Therefore, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship (1787/1836) remains the supreme Law of the Land, binding upon all judges, state officers, Senators, and Representatives. Any adverse actions — including but not limited to fraudulent foreclosure, unlawful conveyance, or deprivation of rights — that violate said Treaty, the Constitution, or any valid trust instrument are null and void ab initio and shall be treated as fraud and unconstitutional color of law deprivations actionable under 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242, and other applicable international human rights provisions.

Plaintiff further asserts that Defendant Jamie Dimon U.S. citizen, acting CEO though JPMorgan Chase wrongful foreclosure violates Article 22 of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1787/1836, which remains in force as a binding international agreement between the United States and Moorish Americans. Article 22 guarantees Moorish nationals the right to make claims for property and protection and requires that all such rights be respected by both state and federal governments in full accord with the Supremacy Clause.

Under Kolovrat v. Oregon, 366 U.S. 187, 194 (1961):

"A State cannot refuse to give effect to the rights of foreign nationals under valid international treaties because of fear that valid international agreements may possibly not work completely to the satisfaction of state authorities. Under the Supremacy Clause (Art. VI, Clause 2) of the United States Constitution, State policies must yield to overriding federal treaties and conflicting arrangements."

By ignoring Plaintiff's protected status, disregarding her recorded Moorish American, and attempting to seize the estate through a private commercial foreclosure that conflicts with a valid treaty, Defendants Jamie Dimon U.S. citizen, acting CEO though JPMorgan Chase, and any state officers acting in concert violate both the Supremacy Clause and Plaintiff's treaty rights.

Plaintiff's Treaty-Protected Trust and Consular Rights

The Treaty of Peace and Friendship, Article 22, provides that "the consul shall take possession of his effects; and if there shall be no consul, the effects shall be deposited in the hands of some person worthy of trust." but it the heir to the person deceased be present, the property shall be delivered to him without interruption; and if a soon as the consul a property shall descend agreeably to that will, as Plaintiff Rachael Griffin-El, reminds the Article III section 2 Court that the R.L. Freeman Trust, which secures her private estate and protected property rights, is duly filed in the public records under Tax Exemption No. AA222141 and is also filed with the United States Treasury Department, Office of Foreign Assets Control.

Such unlawful foreclosure is null and void under the law of nations, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and the United States Constitution.

Result: Foreclosure is Void Ab Initio

Because no valid loan was ever made and Defendants Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO JPMORGAN Chase & Co. and Thomas J Axon U.S. Citizen acting CEO Franklin credit management company, defaulted first on the essential delivery of lawful money, the entire transaction is void ab initio. Accordingly, any foreclosure action based on this fraudulent debt must be declared null and void, and title quieted in Plaintiff's favor.

VI. Foreclosure Is Invalid Without Lawful Consideration

Invalidity of Alleged Debt Under 15 U.S. Code § 78c

Under 15 U.S. Code § 78c(a)(10) of the Securities Exchange Act, the term "security" expressly includes a note, except that it does not include currency or any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which has a maturity at the time of issuance of not exceeding nine months, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal thereof the maturity of which is likewise limited.

Plaintiff's original promissory note is a security under this definition because it exceeds nine months and is not currency. It is a negotiable instrument — not lawful money — and the only "asset" Defendants Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO JPMORGAN Chase & Co. and Thomas J Axon U.S. Citizen acting CEO Franklin credit management company, ever received. Defendants did not loan Plaintiff actual lawful money (gold or silver coin) as required by Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution. Instead, they took Plaintiff's signature, deposited it as a banking asset, and converted it into credit — a private book-entry transaction with no lawful money ever delivered into Plaintiff's hands.

Re:

- Misrepresented Instrument — Bill of Attainder / Foreign Bill of Exchange
- Codilis File #: 44-25-00934 Juanita Deaver U.S. citizen /attorney /Feoffer
- Loan #: 0696921980
- Inherited Ancestral Estate in Reversion known as: 703 Deveron Ln., Houston, Texas Republic
 - After Plaintiff issued a certified mail Affidavit of Dispute and a Memorandum of Trust and Adverse Claim, placing JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and its CEO Jamie Dimon U.S. citizen on actual and constructive notice of Plaintiff's lawful dispute and protected adverse interest, said Defendants proceeded in willful default and bad faith.
 - Acting under Dimon's direction, an affiliate — Juanita Deaver, U.S. citizen, attorney, and self-styled "feoffer" — transmitted a Bill of Attainder-styled demand through Codilis & Moody, P.C., a debt collector, in an attempt to unlawfully collect on an alleged debt already subject to verified dispute and adverse claim. This action constitutes constructive fraud and mail fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341, as it uses the mails to affect a swindle against the Plaintiff's protected property real Estate rights.
 - Juanita Deaver U.S. citizen,/Attorney/feoffer, then filed a Notice of Trustee's Sale and Appointment of Substitute Trustee, fraudulently misrepresenting the void instrument as a lawful basis for alienating

Plaintiff's Inherited Ancestral Estate in Reversion known as 703 Deveron Ln., Houston, Texas Republic — despite having no lawful title, standing, or authority to do so under trust law, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and the Bill of Attainder prohibition in Article I, Section 9, Clause 3 of the United States Constitution.

- Any purported foreclosure sale or downstream transfer of title is therefore void ab initio and constitutes a continuing trespass upon Plaintiff's secured estate and sovereign Moorish American unalienable rights.
- • Notice of Adverse Claim and Dispute:
Plaintiff has lawfully disputed any alleged mortgage debt by serving a Certified Mail Affidavit of Dispute and a Memorandum of Trust and Adverse Claim upon JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and CEO Jamie Dimon, U.S. citizen thereby providing actual and constructive notice under UCC 3-501 and relevant state and federal law.
- • Fraudulent Collection and Bill of Attainder:
Despite this verified dispute, Defendants, by and through their affiliate Juanita Deaver, U.S. citizen/attorney/self-styled "feoffer," acting under the name Codilis & Moody, P.C., transmitted a purported debt collection letter and foreclosure threat styled as a Bill of Attainder, in direct violation of Article I, Section 9, Clause 3 of the United States Constitution, which strictly prohibits any legislative or quasi-legislative act punishing a party without due process of law. The alleged debt associated with account / folio number Codilis File # 44-25-00934 and any other attachments associated thereto are acquitted and discharged in accordance with and in reliance on Title 12 USC 95a (2): Title 12 U.S. Code § 95a-Regulation of transactions in foreign exchange of gold and silver. property transfers; vested interests, enforcement, and penalties. (2) Any payment conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery of property or interest therein, made to or for the account of the United States, or as otherwise directed, pursuant to this section or any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued hereunder shall to the extent thereof be a full acquittance and discharge for all purposes of the obligation of the person making the same; and no person shall be held liable in any court for or in respect to anything done or omitted in good faith in connection with the administration of or in pursuance of and in reliance on, this section, or any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued hereunder
- • Mail Fraud and Constructive Fraud:
Said debt collection letter and subsequent Notice of Trustee's Sale and Appointment of Substitute Trustee constitute mail fraud under 18 U.S.C. § 1341, as they employ the U.S. mails to advance a fraudulent conveyance scheme, misrepresenting a void mortgage instrument as lawful consideration when in fact the underlying transaction lacked lawful consideration ab initio, was never fully disclosed, and was procured through constructive fraud.
- • Violation of Protected Ancestral Estate:
The estate known as 703 Deveron Ln., Houston, Texas Republic is Plaintiff's Inherited Ancestral Estate in Reversion, protected under the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1787/1836, Articles 22, 23, and 24, which provide that an heir present shall receive the property without interruption and that no foreign corporate like JPMorgan Chase & Co, Jamie Dimon CEO/ U.S. citizen acting under a fiction may lawfully alienate said estate without clear, knowing, and voluntary consent.

- Supremacy Clause and Treaty Protection:

Under Article VI, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution (the Supremacy Clause), the Constitution, all Treaties made under the authority of the United States, and the Articles of Confederation remain the supreme Law of the Land, preempting any conflicting state foreclosure statutes, debt collection practices, or substitute trustee appointments.

- Demand to Cease and Desist:

Defendants Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO JPMORGAN Chase & Co. and Thomas J Axon U.S. Citizen acting CEO Franklin credit management company, are hereby ordered to immediately CEASE AND DESIST any further acts of debt collection, foreclosure, eviction, or conveyance related to this Inherited Ancestral Estate. Any downstream transfer of title, writ of possession, or state eviction proceeding is void ab initio and will subject all participating parties to civil and criminal liability for trespass, fraud, mail fraud, slander of title, and violations of Plaintiff's protected rights under domestic and international law.

- Reservation of Rights:

Plaintiff reserves all unalienable, retained, and secured rights under the Constitution for the United States of America, the Articles of Confederation, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and all applicable trust, equity, and commercial law.

Statement of Non-Consent and Sovereign Standing

I, Rachael Griffin-El, a living, sentient, natural Moorish American national and rightful heir to my ancestral estate, hereby affirm and declare the following under penalty of perjury:

- I have recorded a Quitclaim Deed & Affidavit of Allodial Aboriginal Paramount Clear Perfect Title of Conveyance with the Harris County Real Property Records, establishing my paramount title and sovereign rights to my estate.
- I reject and do not consent to any claims, conveyances, liens, or actions made by stateless U.S. citizens acting as attorney/Feoffer, including but not limited to:
 - Juanita Deaver, U.S. citizen, attorney at law with Codilis & Moody, P.C., who appeared as attorney/Feoffer on the deed of trust used to escheat my estate;
 - Eric G. Carlson, attorney/Feoffer and U.S. citizen, with direct contact (214) 880-1876, email ecarlson@qslwm.com;
 - Jamie Dimon, CEO /U.S. citizen of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and affiliate Feoffer acting under corporate capacity.
- I stand firmly on my insurance policy, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship (1787/1836), and the United States Constitution, which is the supreme law of the land. No state or citizen has lawful authority to enact or enforce laws or claims that violate my treaty rights or my status as an indigenous Moorish American.

- I hereby expressly decline any further meetings, negotiations, or communications that do not fully recognize and respect my sovereign status and recorded public acts.
- All parties are hereby put on formal notice that any unlawful interference with my estate will be met with all available lawful legal remedies, including claims of fraudulent conveyance, breach of trust, and violation of international treaty rights..

Because no lawful money was ever loaned, there can be no lawful debt. A security interest (the deed of trust) cannot be enforced if there was no actual delivery of value. This means no true debt exists to foreclose upon.

Moreover, Defendants Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO JPMORGAN Chase & Co. and Thomas J Axon U.S. Citizen acting CEO Franklin credit management company, have attempted to accelerate or foreclose an alleged debt that was never funded with lawful consideration. Foreclosure demands that Plaintiff surrender her estate ahead of time based on an alleged future obligation — but if no real money was loaned, there can be no valid obligation at all.

No lawful money → No valid debt → No valid lien → No foreclosure.

Any foreclosure based on a fraudulent debt created solely by monetizing Plaintiff's signature is void ab initio. Defendants Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO JPMORGAN Chase & Co. and Thomas J Axon U.S. Citizen acting CEO Franklin credit management company, actions in proceeding with this foreclosure constitute constructive fraud, unjust enrichment, and a direct violation of Plaintiff's constitutional and commercial rights, including the Fifth Amendment right to due process of law.

Furthermore, Defendants Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO JPMORGAN Chase & Co. and Thomas J Axon U.S. Citizen acting CEO Franklin credit management company, actions violate Article IV of the Articles of Confederation, which guarantees that "such restrictions shall not extend so far as to prevent the removal of property imported into any state, to any other state of which the owner is an inhabitant," and also provides that "no imposition, duties, or restriction shall be laid by any state, on the property of the united states, or either of them."

In addition, the Full Faith and Credit Clause requires that "Full Faith and Credit shall be given in each of these States to the records, acts and judicial proceedings of the courts and magistrates of every other state."

By disregarding these constitutional and Articles of Confederation protections, Defendant Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO JPMORGAN Chase & Co., foreclosure is rendered void, unlawful, and unenforceable.

VII. Response to Defendants' Argument Regarding Foreclosure Sale and Eviction

Proceedings while it is true that the estate was allegedly sold to P.C.F. Properties and that/U.S. citizen, operations, property, manager, Antony Halaris,U.S. citizen, P.C.F. Properties In TX LLC /U.S. citizen, filed an eviction action, it is also true that P.C.F. has not lawfully obtained a final judgment of possession. Plaintiff was forced, under duress and protest, to file an appeal because Jamie Dimon, U.S. citizen, acting as CEO of JPMorgan Chase Bank, orchestrated and directed actions that placed Plaintiff under economic and legal distress. These actions forced Plaintiff to defend her protected estate rights under the Constitution and Treaty of Peace and Friendship.

Defendant Jamie Dimon U.S. Citizen, acting CEO, JPMorgan Chase & Co. conduct violates Plaintiff's fundamental constitutional rights and treaty-protected status, including the right to fair due process under the Fifth Amendment. Plaintiff remains in her estate and lawfully demands this Court to intervene and perform its constitutional obligation to uphold the supreme law — including the security agreement embodied in the Constitution and treaties — by voiding this wrongful foreclosure and protecting Plaintiff's peaceful possession.

Defendants JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Jamie Dimon, U.S. citizen acting CEO remain the orchestrators and beneficiaries of the unlawful foreclosure scheme. Defendant retain control and benefit from the assignment to P.C.F. Properties, making them proper parties against whom injunctive relief may be sought.

Further, the Anti-Injunction Act does not bar this Court from granting relief to prevent violations of constitutional rights, including unlawful deprivation of property without due process. The Act contains exceptions allowing federal courts to intervene when necessary to prevent irreparable harm or constitutional violations.

The Rooker-Feldman doctrine is inapplicable here because Plaintiff does not seek to overturn or directly review any state court judgment of possession. Rather, Plaintiff asks this Court to prevent ongoing constitutional and treaty violations arising from the unlawful foreclosure, fraudulent escheat of her private estate, and fraudulent deed of trust.

Because the underlying foreclosure is void ab initio for want of lawful consideration, constructive fraud, and violations of treaty and constitutional guarantees, any downstream writ of possession or state eviction action is legally null and without effect. Therefore, federal intervention is proper to restrain any continued deprivation of Plaintiff's protected property rights under Article VI of the United States Constitution, the Articles of Confederation, and the Treaty of Peace and Friendship — including Articles 22,23 and 24 — all of which constitute the supreme Law of the Land and override any conflicting state codes, laws, statutes, or procedural rules. but it the heir to the person deceased be present, the property shall be delivered to him without interruption; and if a soon as the consul a property shall descend agreeably to that will,

Finally, although Defendant Jamie Dimon, U.S. citizen, are not currently enforcing a writ of possession, they remain liable and responsible for the unlawful foreclosure that precipitated these proceedings. This Article III Court is empowered to enjoin all persons acting in concert with Defendant Jamie Dimon, acting CEO of JPMorgan Chase and U.S. citizen, including (acting) state civil judges, where appropriate. Moreover, Plaintiff's rights to life, liberty, and property are unalienable rights secured under the Constitution, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and the Articles of Confederation. These rights cannot be lawfully taken, denied, or impaired without due process of law—rights which Defendants have violated through their wrongful foreclosure scheme.

VIII. States Cannot Alter Constitutional Obligations

No State may enact any law, rule, code, or statute that conflicts with or undermines the original and organic Constitution of the United States. Any such state enactment is void and without legal effect under the Supremacy Clause of Article VI, Clause 2 of the Constitution.

Non-judicial foreclosures are unconstitutional as they deprive individuals of their fundamental right to due process guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Such procedures deny property owners a fair hearing before an impartial tribunal, thereby violating core constitutional protections.

The organic Constitution and the Articles of Confederation bind all States. Any modern statute, banking code, or corporate procedure that attempts to rewrite the obligation to use only gold and silver coin (Article I, Section 10) or to impose feudal duties on estate property is unconstitutional.

An obligation means obligation: States and private actors cannot pass laws that impair the original trust or contract between the people and the government. The fraudulent foreclosure seeks to do exactly that — it seeks to impair the obligation of a constitutional contract by using private commercial paper to deprive Plaintiff of real property.

IX. The Anti-Injunction Act and Rooker-Feldman Doctrine Do Not Bar Relief

Defendants Jamie Dimon CEO/ U.S. citizen/ acting Attorney incorrectly claim that the Anti-Injunction Act and the Rooker-Feldman Doctrine bar this Court from granting relief. This is not true for three reasons:

First, Plaintiff Rachael Griffin-El /heir unconditional, does not merely seek to relitigate a state eviction or appeal a state judgment. Plaintiff asserts that the foreclosure itself is void ab initio for want of lawful consideration, fraud, and violation of federal constitutional and treaty rights. Any writ of possession obtained downstream of a void foreclosure is null and without legal force because it rests on a fraudulent foundation.

Second, the Rooker-Feldman Doctrine does not bar independent federal actions that attack the validity of the underlying transaction for fraud, lack of jurisdiction, or constitutional violations. See, e.g., Truong v. Bank of America, N.A., 717 F.3d 377, 382 (5th Cir. 2013) (Rooker-Feldman does not bar claims “independent of the state court judgment”).

Third, the Anti-Injunction Act does not bar relief where an injunction is necessary “to protect or effectuate the federal court’s judgments” or where it is necessary to enforce superior federal rights, including the Treaty of Peace and Friendship, the Supremacy Clause, and Article I, Section 10. See 28 U.S.C. § 2283 (exceptions clause).

Plaintiff invokes valid treaty rights, recognized as the supreme law under Kolovrat v. Oregon, 366 U.S. 187 (1961). A state court judgment obtained in conflict with a valid international treaty is void and must yield under the Supremacy Clause.

Accordingly, the Article III Court retains jurisdiction to enjoin all actors — including state officers and downstream purchasers — from enforcing an unlawful writ of possession arising from a fraudulent foreclosure that was void from inception.

Pursuant to 15 USC 1681(b)(6)(2)(A)(ii) all alleged and assumed authorization to communicate any reporting about me or my ancestral estate is revoked with all signatures rescinded.

COUNTERCLAIM & FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT

Your claim of an alleged debt under Codilis File #44-25-00934 / Loan #0696921980 is null, void, and unconstitutional for fraud in the inducement, for the following reasons: the unlawful foreclosure Jaime Dimon CEO /U.S. citizen.

1. You hold no valid Allodial or Aboriginal Title.

2. Between November 16, 2024, and March 13, 2025, Codilis & Moody, P.C., U.S. citizen, acting as a purported debt collector, mailed a letter demanding a tender of $124,881.79 under color of law. See Exhibits E1 and E2. This demand is rooted in a purported mortgage contract and alleged debt that this Plaintiff asserts are tainted by fraud, misrepresentation, and failure of lawful consideration. As the United States Supreme Court held in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878), “Fraud vitiates even the most solemn contracts, documents, and judgments.” Therefore, any instrument or judgment derived from such fraud is null and void ab initio and cannot be enforced in any court of equity or law.

3. Discharge and Acquittance of Alleged Debt Under Title 12 U.S.C. § 95a(2)

Plaintiff further asserts that any alleged debt arising from the purported mortgage contract is acquitted and discharged pursuant to Title 12 U.S.C. § 95a(2), which provides statutory authority for the acquittance and discharge of obligations under the Emergency Banking Relief Act of 1933. This provision remains in force and effect and demonstrates that any purported obligation relying on private corporate credit, rather than lawful tender of actual money, is unenforceable under federal law.

Moreover, under the Clearfield Doctrine (Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363 (1943)), the United States Supreme Court established that when the government or its chartered entities (such as Federal Reserve member banks) engage in commercial or proprietary activities, they do so as private corporations subject to commercial law rather than sovereign authority. Accordingly, Defendant Jamie Dimon, CEO/ U.S. citizen, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as a private corporation issuing credit instruments rather than lawful United States money of account, cannot enforce any debt obligation which is in fact extinguished by operation of Title 12 U.S.C. § 95a(2).

In light of these facts and controlling precedents, Plaintiff maintains that any demand for payment, foreclosure, or collection — including the letter from Codilis & Moody, P.C. dated between November 16, 2024, and March 13, 2025, demanding tender of $124,881.79 under color of law — is void and unenforceable. As reaffirmed in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878), “Fraud vitiates even the most solemn contracts, documents, and judgments.” Any instrument tainted by fraud, issued without lawful consideration, or discharged by statutory mandate must be treated as void ab initio.

I further affirm and declare:

“A court cannot confer jurisdiction where none existed and cannot make a void proceeding valid. It is clear and well-established law that a void order can be challenged in any court.”
— Old Wayne Mut. Life Assoc. v. McDonough, 204 U.S. 8, 27 S.Ct. 236 (1907)

Therefore, any deed of trust, order, claim, lien, or foreclosure proceeding issued under color of law, fraud in the inducement, or outside true jurisdiction is null and void ab initio, and is lawfully challenged at any time in any competent court.

X. ALLODIAL COMPENSATION INVOICE

For your acts of fraud, deprivation of rights, conspiracy, and inducement under color of law, I claim allodial compensation as follows:

Damage	Cost
Deprivation of Rights (18 USC § 242)	$1,000,000
Conspiracy Against Rights (18 USC § 241)	$7,000,000
Fraud in the Inducement	$7,000,000
Refund of Fiat / Credit	$142,080
Miscellaneous Expenses (Mailing, Filing, Paper, Ink)	$2,500
TOTAL	$15,144,580

All sums are lawfully due forthwith in .9999 fine silver bullion coins and/or bars, as the only lawful payment tender acceptable.

XI. FINAL CONDITIONAL DEFAULT TERMS

You have five (5) days from receipt of this Affidavit to:

- Fully produce the commanded evidence;
- Rebut point-for-point by sworn affidavit under penalty of perjury.
- NO ACTION may be taken by you or your agents during this lawful validation period. Failure to answer constitutes default, standing as your admission by silence that:
 - ✓ You hold no valid claim;
 - ✓ There is no lawful debt;
 - ✓ Your misrepresented instrument(s) — bill of attainder / foreign bill of exchange / unlawful deed of trust sale, whereby you falsely claim I sold my ancestral estate when no valid title exists except mine — is unconstitutional, null, and void ab initio.

Executed under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America and the Texas Republic this 28 day of July, 2025.

I, Rachael Griffin-El, declare under penalty of perjury under Divine Law, the Zodiac Constitution, and the Constitution for the United States (1791), do affirm and certify true, correct, under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing facts and statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

Subject: Formal Notice Regarding Unlawful Foreclosure and Pending Writ of Default

Dear Sheriff Gonzalez,

I am writing to you in your official capacity as Sheriff of Harris County to place you on formal notice of material facts concerning an unlawful foreclosure action presently being disputed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas (Case No. 4:25-cv-02013). I also state interfering in treaty matters. Justice of the peace precinct 4 place1(Case Number: 254100243037)

I have provided the opposing parties with all required affidavits, notices of dispute, and demands for lawful validation of any alleged debt or authority to foreclose. To date, they have failed to produce any verified evidence proving their lawful standing, ownership of the note, or compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

Accordingly, I have given the named parties five (5) days from the date of this letter to respond and cure all defaults. Failure to respond in good faith will result in my issuance of a Writ of Default, which will be filed in the court record as further evidence of their failure to meet lawful obligations and rebut my claims.

I am providing you this notice to ensure that no officer under your command will act to enforce or carry out any eviction, seizure, or removal of my estate person or property based on an unlawful or fraudulent foreclosure claim while this matter remains under judicial review. Any such action absent due process and lawful standing would constitute a violation of my constitutional rights and an unlawful breach of the peace.

I trust that, under your oath of office, you will see that no forced removal or enforcement occurs contrary to the law and my protected rights.

Please contact me if you require any additional documentation or clarification. I am prepared to supply certified copies of all filings, affidavits, and notices as needed.

Thank you for your attention to this serious matter and your commitment to upholding the law and safeguarding the rights of the people of Harris County.

Respectfully,

Affiant: Rachael Griffin-El, ex rel RACHAEL GRIFFIN
